

Employment Partner - Legal Sector

- 80% of your billing; 20% of internally referred billing; a share of the firm's equity
- Autonomy and minimal bureaucracy
- Flexible working and freedom from target driven cultures and office politics
- An established brand and like-minded collaborative colleagues
- A supportive infrastructure

This opportunity would suit a Partner who is keen to maintain a successful practice whilst also seeking a solid platform to enable internal referrals of work to and from other practice areas.

A Legal 500 'One to Watch' (2024) firm, and an employment team ranked in Legal 500 for Employers, we are made up of a team of over 40 people based across the UK – many of whom are lawyers who have come from Top 20 or Magic Circle firms or were in-house counsel at FTSE 100 companies.

Our practice provides City of London levels of service to a diverse array of large and small corporate clients and individuals located nationally and internationally.

With that in mind, we would like to recruit a Partner who has the entrepreneurial flair to develop and grow the practice, deliver trusted advice, with the support of a fantastic infrastructure.

The Financial Model

We operate a transparent consultancy-based fee sharing structure:

- 80% of billings collected as standard
- 20% fee allocation on internal referrals
- Equity participation through profit share units
- Professional indemnity insurance included

What You Bring

- 10+ years PQE (England & Wales qualified)
- An established portable client following
- A commercial and growth-focused mindset
- Ability to collaborate within a partner-led environment
- Being a businessperson not just a lawyer

What You Gain

- An excellent reward model
- An established brand with a reputation for client focused bespoke services
- Control of your client relationships
- Autonomy and freedom from targets and internal politics
- Access to experienced collaborative colleagues across complementary disciplines
- Full support infrastructure and compliance support provided
- Flexible working model with City meeting facilities available
